COOLIDGE TOLD SHOALS AGREEMENT IS NEAR; SENTIMENT FOR NEW FORD OFFER GROWING SAND CAVE CLOSES ABOUT COLLINS

FLOOR OF CAVERN 'RISES,' TRAPPING ITS VICTIM AGAIN

Sinking Shaft Through
Top of Hill Decided
On By Rescuers

LAST HOPES FOR MAN ARE FADING

Dangerous Methods To Be Used As Last Resort To Save Him

(Associated Press)

CAVE CITY, Ky., Feb. 5—An appeal for funds to supply food and clothing to workers seeking to free Floyd Collins from his entombment in Sand Cave was issued today.

Lee Collins, the imprisoned man's father, has exhausted all of his money in purchasing overalls, coffee and food for his son.

Collins has been completely entombed
in his Sand Cave prison, 150 feet underground by a rise in the floor of the cave and all hopes of escape through any natural passage have been abandoned.

Four trips into the cave have convinced a geologist coal miners and military authorities in charge of the work that their only chance to reach Collins is by sinking a shaft in the top of the hill and endeavoring to tunnel to the imprisoned man.

Any attempt to mine into the cave
probably will be fatal to Collins it was agreed, but the plan was adopted as a last resort and Major W. H. Perry, the governor's agent, has been dispatched in an automobile with instructions to get mine machinery
wherever any can be found.

The slow rising of the floor within the cavern began shortly after midnight. A rescue crew, which entered at 1 a. m. found that the floor apparently had swelled from below at the innermost "squeeze" only a few feet
from Collins.

Returning to the surface, the miners who composed the detail made their report to Brigadier General Denhardt,
in charge of the work, and Denhardt immediately summoned W. D. Funkhouser, head of the geological department of the University of Kentucky
who arrived yesterday.

After a conference, it was decided that the miners should re-enter the cave for a second observation with a view to determining whether the movement of rock could be stopped.
Meanwhile those in charge of the work withheld knowledge of what had occurred.

An hour later the miners re-appeared at the surface and hurried to General Denhardt and his conferees in one of the tents near the entrance.
The floor had continued to rise during the hour, they reported.

A third trip revealed that the slow rising had continued and when the miners emerged after their fourth underground visit, they told General Denhardt that the passage way had been completely sealed.

There had been no more rock falls nor cave-ins, it was stated. The swelling, apparently had lifted solid rocks
from the floor to the roof of the cavern.

This action closed the passage way or an indefinite distance and may have crushed Collins if it extended that far. Inasmuch as a considerable portion of the cave, leading from the entrance toward the prisoner remained undisturbed, however, belief was expressed that Collins might still be alive.

The movement took place just behind that part of the cavern which

At White House

MISS MARGARET STEMPEL

There's whispering about a romance in the White House, since Miss Margaret Stemple, pretty Ohio Northern University student, of Ada, O., visited there. She and her mother were presented at a reception. There she met John Coolidge, and the two became fast friends. The President's only surviving son took her for a long tour of inspection of the Mansion while ushers searched for them.

FLOGGING VICTIM REMAINS IN JAIL

Arrival of Judge Being Awaited for Opening
of Investigation

(Associated Press)

GRiffin, Ga., Feb. 5—After spending the night with his family in jail here for protection, T. H. Ernest who appeared last night with a charge
that he had been taken from his home and severely flogged by a band of masked men, today remained at the jail, pending the arrival of Judge Ser-vey Jr., when an investigation will be launched.

Search for the perpetrators of the alleged floggers was stimulated today
by an announcement of Governor Clifford Walker of Atlanta, of a reward of $500 for the leader of the band and $200 for each member of the band.

Ernest, who said his wife was choked and his wife beaten about the head when they attempted to rescue
him from the mob Tuesday night, told Sheriff F. B. Stapleton, there were beaten 12 and 15 men in the party, but he could not identify them.

His father-in-law W. J. Huff, who with Mrs. Huff accompanied the Ernest family to the jail, required the services of a physician for wounds about the head he said he had received when he attempted to go to the aid of his son-in-law.

Man Sought Far Kidnapping Child

(Associated Press)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 5—Police here today were asked to assist St.
Augustine police in apprehending a man who yesterday afternoon was reported to have kidnapped Jack Nutting, aged 12, son of Captain William Nutting of New York city.

Captain Nutting, according to the boy's mother, was lost last summer in the Arctic while in command of an expedition.

BOTTLE OF POISON FOUND

(Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, O. Feb. 5—A new bottle of strychnine, the presence of which was unknown was discovered last night by Dr. Clare Dye, of the college of pharmacy, at Ohio state university in a niche of the dispensary stock. The bottle contained 75 grains of poison.

FARMERS URGED BY COUNTY AGENT TO ATTEND MEET

Development Day Will Be Observed Here
This Month

GREAT THINGS SEEN IN FUTURE

Ford Requests County's Agriculturalists To Greet Him Here

A call to Morgan County farmers to meet here on "Development Day"
when plans for greater co-operation between the cities and rural districts will be discussed, was issued today by J. C. Ford, Morgan County farm agent
as follows:

"Plans have been made by the Albany-Decatur chamber of commerce,
the County Farm Bureau and myself
for a general meeting of farmers, business men, professional men and others interested in the development of Morgan County.

"Wilson Dam is nearing completion.
Dam No. 3 is in immediate prospect.
A free bridge across the Tennessee seems assured. The industrial United States is looking toward this valley, and the look reveals the crossing of two trunk railroads at Decatur. We are on the verge of a growth and development such as this section has never seen.

"The challenge to us is for understanding and co-operation between farm and town. Come to this meeting and help to arrive at an understanding and plans for co-operation that will assist in making things
come your way."

The chamber of commerce is anticipating a great crowd here on "Development Day" and a vast amount of good is expected to be derived from the conference.

CUP WINNER WILL BE HEARD LOCALLY

Carson Adams Will Be Heard Sunday In Churches Here

Carson Adams, winner of the Birmingham News loving cup for being the most beneficial citizen of Birmingham in the year 1924, will speak at the First Methodist church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the preliminary meeting of the proposed state wide tour of council meetings to aid in eliminating religious illiteracy in the state of Alabama.

He will speak at the First Baptist church of Decatur on Sunday evening.
These are not denominational meetings, and all churches are invited and requested to help put the plan over.

An all day conference will be held at the Central Methodist church Tuesday, February 10, with representatives invited from all churches in Morgan, Limestone, Lawrence and Cullman counties.

This meeting will begin at 10 a. m.
with Judge Sam F. Hobbs of Selma, and L. E. Burdick of Birmingham
as speakers.

One hundred meetings are planned in this campaign to affect every church in the state. Some of the most important speakers and church workers in the state will take part in spreading the religious teachings through the six conferences.

The Twin Cities are fortunate in having such able speakers to come here.

SHRINE CLUB WILL DISCUSS HOSPITAL PLANS ON MONDAY

Organization To Meet
At Central National Bank at 7:30 p. m.

CONFERENCE WAS HELD LAST NIGHT

Committees To Assist
In Raising Fund
For Addition

Complete plans for participation of members of the Tennessee Valley Shrine club in the movement to erect an additional wing to the Benevolent hospital here, will be outlined at a meeting of the club, to be held Monday at 7:30 o'clock in the rooms of the Central National Bank.

Decision to hold a meeting Monday night was reached Wednesday evening at a conference of prominent Shriners and members of the committee appointed about a year ago to handle the details of the Shriners' plan
to help enlarge the present hospital building.

It will be remembered that about twelve months ago at a gathering of the Shrine Club, it was proposed that the club undertake to assist the Benevolent society in enlarging the present hospital. This suggestion was acted upon favorably by the club and committees were appointed to lead the movement.

A few days ago it was announced that the trustees of the hospital had instructed the architects to go ahead with their plans for the addition. The building at present is not sufficiently large to accommodate the large number of patients who ask admittance to the institution from every section of this and adjoining counties.

Inasmuch as the hospital despite the fact that it always is crowded has never turned any patient away because he or she lacked funds to pay for the hospital care, it will be necessary for the people of this section to render financial aid to the institution in its building program. This the Shrine club plans to do.

LABOR COUNCIL IN SESSION IN MIAMI

President Green Heads Delegates To the Conference

(Associated Press)

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 5—Members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor began discussion of a number of problems before the session.

All members of the council, with the exception of James Duncan, first vice president, who recently resigned were present. The union chiefs were formally welcomed to Miami last night
at a dinner given by the Central Labor Union in the modest little restaurant across the street from the hotel where the council is making its headquarters.

President William Green and other notable figures in the national organization were in the conference.

Harris Home To Be Remodelled

Plans for remodeling the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris on Vine street are being arranged by the Harry J. Frann company. Several constructive alterations are planned. The work is expected to begin soon.

Heroine of Nome Epidemic

MISS EMILY MORGAN, NTS.

The outstanding heroine of the Nome, Alaska, diphtheria epidemic has been Miss Emily Morgan, of Wichita, Kansas, the only Red Cross nurse in that vicinity. Day and night she has been with her patients in the wards of the Maynard-Columbia Hospital, helping to keep down the death toll, while out in the bleak wastes, at 60 below zero, hardy mushers were cracking their whips over faded dogs to rush in, in record breaking time, 300,000 units of antitoxin that were counted on to check the epidemic. From her hospital, she went also to the huts of the natives and the igloos of the Eskimos, facing death daily in her mission of mercy.

ORY-COHEN WILL REOPEN THIS MONTH

Settlement Accepted
By Creditors Must
Be Affirmed

Announcement was made this morning that the firm of Ory-Cohen would re-open during the month of February, probably between the 15th and the latter part. The settlement offered was accepted by the creditors
and the three stores in Albany-Decatur, Gadsden and Anniston will reopen.

At a creditor's meeting in Gadsden
the bankrupt offered a composition settlement that was accepted by a majority of the creditors and it is expected that the composition will have to be affirmed in Birmingham by a judge of the federal court about the 12th of February.

The establishment has been one of the most popular business houses in Albany-Decatur as well as the other two cities and the many friends of Mr. Cohen will be glad to know that he will again conduct a business here.

Birmingham Dogs Win More Honors

(Associated Press)

COURTLAND, Ala., Feb. 5—Birmingham again took the lions share in the all-age stakes of the Alabama field trials, which closed here yesterday. The winner of the first place, the setter "Lee's Ghost Ben" owned and handled by E. M. Tutwiler Jr., second place went to "Short Change"
owned and handled by Scott Hutson,
of Atlanta. "Mount Baby", the third place winner, belongs to B. McCall of Birmingham.

The running of the all-age stages ended the Alabama field trials which had been underway here since Mon-

TEN CASES UNDER QUARANTINE NOW

Officers Informed One
Victim Of Disease
Was on Street

An alleged case of small pox was reported to the city hall by an unknown informant as being on the streets at the corner of Moulton and Second avenue at 11 o'clock. Officers were out at the time of the call and the names of the persons supposed to be ill were not discovered.

Health officials state that ten cases are now under quarantine although they claim that there are probably many more cases in the county that have not been reported and that authorities know nothing about.

Everyone is warned to take precautions against the disease by being vaccinated. Doctors throughout the county are in a position to vaccinate and Dr. McRee county health officer, states that he will vaccinate anyone
not able to pay a private doctor.

A warning is also given to beware of chicken pox at this time as it is very likely that small pox may be mistaken for this disease.

Officers Free To Voice Opinions

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The house aircraft committee, which is considering charges that army and navy officers are gagged by their superiors on questions of military policy, was informed by Secretary Wilbur today that the navy officers are free to express their views fully.

"I wish to assure you," the secretary said in a letter to the committee chairman, "that they are perfectly free to state fully and fairly all facts within their knowledge not of a confidential or secret character and to fully express their opinion on any subject."

CONFEREES' REPORT LIKELY TO BE MADE BY CLOSE OF WEEK

Re-drafted Bill Now Is Before Conference
For Consideration

AUTHOR AGREES TO AMENDMENTS

Ford Supporters Are Becoming Active In
New Bid Plan

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5—Tentative legislation for solution of the Muscle Shoals problem was laid before President Coolidge today by Chairman Keyes and McKenzie of the conference committees.

Holding that the problem of disposing of the property eventually will reach the President, the conference chairmen deemed it wise to submit,
for his consideration, the tentative agreement worked out on the basis of the Underwood leasing bill.

Submission of the tentative draft led the president to call into conference Secretaries Weeks and Hoover who, by invitation of the conference committees, have been consulted in the effort to formulate compromise legislation.

The chairmen advised the president that it would be possible unless unfor-seen difficulties arose, to complete the conference agreement on the legislation by the end of the week. Prior to final action, however, the chairmen will be advised of the President's views.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5—President
Coolidge was advised today by Chairman Keyes and McKenzie of the senate-house conference committee on the Muscle Shoals legislation that an agreement probably would be reached before the end of the week.

A re-drafted bill, said to contain all important provisions of the Underwood bill, with principal changes relating to the fertilizer section, was before the senate and house Muscle Shoals conference today for discussion of remaining points of difference described as being of minor importance.

Senator Underwood, democrat of Alabama, author of the bill, after agreeing to the suggested changes, said the bill would be reported with some amendment, but would be substantially the same as passed by the senate.

The most important changes were described as giving the President more latitude in drawing a lease and liberalizing as to profits and amount of production.

There is a growing sentiment among the conferees in favor of an attempt to induce Henry Ford to submit another bid, under the Underwood
bill is enacted.

Some of the original Ford bid supporters have joined with a number of farm organizations in announcing this intention.

World Court Plan Goes On the Shelf

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5—The world court proposal virtually was laid on the shelf today by the senate foreign relations committee, so far as this congress is concerned.

A two hour discussion got the committee nowhere and Senator Swanson democratic member of the committee said he saw no necessity of pressing his proposal.

Fear Bloody K. K. K. Outbreak in Herrin

S. GLENN YOUNG FUNERAL

Chief of Police Walker, of Herrin, Ill., and Sheriff George Galligan, of "Bloody Williamson" County, have urged that State troops be sent to Herrin, and that the town be placed under martial law until all citizens are disarmed. They declare the police are powerless, and that they fear a bloody Ku Klux Klan outbreak, following the deaths of S. Glenn Young, K. K. K. self-appointed law enforcer; Deputy Sheriff Ora Thomas and two other men, killed in a revolver duel. Hundreds of Klansmen, in full Klan regalia, attended the funeral services for Young, whose body is shown being taken from the First Baptist Church to the cemetery.

MUCH FERTILIZER
BOUGHT BY BUREAU

To date members of the Morgan County farm bureau have placed orders for about 200 tons of nitrate of soda, 30 tons muriate of potash, 20 tons kainit and 300 tons phosphate, a total of about 550 tons says a statement issued today by the bureau's fertilizer committee. This material is being bought for home mixing according to the "Auburn Method," the mixture that has proved so profitable for the last several years.

Many thinking farmers who have not previously belonged to the bureau are joining after comparing bureau prices with outside prices and considering the greatly increased returns from the use of the home mixture. The bureau members can mix a 10-6-4 fertilizer for $31.42, and then he gets a refund at the end of the season.

The state bureau's supply of nitrate will probably be exhausted within ten days or two weeks. After that time the price will be about $3.00 higher than now. Further word from the Montgomery office eases the potash situation and the bureau will be able to get it right along, but an advance in price is likely. Acid can be bought right along also, but here too an advance in price is possible. Those interested should get their orders in as early as possible, says the committee which is composed of: B. P. Collier, C. T. Stephenson, W. L. Hardwick.

BUILD UP LAND SAYS
COUNTY AGENT FORD

Leguminous Crops Are Urged As Builders Of Rich Soil

By J. C. Ford, County Agent
There is one sure way, without a gamble, to make money farming, and only one. That is by farming fertile land. The man who farms rich land always comes out ahead. Fertilizer will grow crops, but it will not build land in any true sense of the word.

The best soil-builders we have are the leguminous crops; and for rapid building of the soil and paying dividends at the same time, lespedeza is King of the Legume family. Sow lespedeza on land too poor to grow hay. You get a profitable seed crop and the land is greatly enriched. Sow it on fertile land. You get a crop of hay unsurpassed, and possibly a crop of seed, and your land is improved.

Sow it on wet land in combination with timothy and red top and get an early cutting of grass and a late cutting of lespedeza and possibly a still later seed crop. Just that thing was done last year by Mr. G. H. Caperton of Stevenson, Jackson County and the returns were better than $70 per acre.

Sow it on well drained land with oats, using 200 to 300 pounds of phosphate per acre, and run it that way for two or three years, getting a better crop of each than if the other land had not been planted.

Get into the lespedeza business. Grow seed on your poor land while enriching it and sow your pasture, your meadows, and your grain lands. Lespedeza is a real king, but one that works day and night and gives you all the profit. Lespedeza will make this country rich if given the opportunity.

had been timbered by rescuers.

The first three explorations by the miners required about one hour each. Considerable more time elapsed during the fourth visit, however, and the alarm of those on the surface increased each minute until the first man's light appeared in the cavity, downward from the entrance.

No one among those in charge of the work at Sand Cave was able to suggest where the nearest mining machinery might be located. Major Perry did not make known his destination when he hurriedly drove away for more equipment.

Preliminary plans for sinking the shaft called for a mine from the top of the hill at a position not far distance from where Collins is thought to be penned. It is estimated the shaft would be 50 to 75 feet deep before any of the caverns were tapped.

Whether the position chosen would strike Sand Cave was a matter of speculation. It is does not then a tunnel to the depth the cave is believed to be, would be undertaken.

The danger to Collins in mining downward lies in the vibration entailed in such work may cause further shifts and crush him.

CHAPTER XX
HOSTAGES

Peter Blood made his way through the house to the wide piazza behind it, in whose shade were Colonel Bishop and my Lord Julian Wade.

"I have sent for you, Captain Blood, because of certain news that has just reached me," the Deputy Governor said. "I am informed that yesterday evening a frigate left the harbor having on board your associate Wolverstone and a hundred men of the hundred and fifty that were serving under you. His lordship and I shall be glad to have your explanation of how you came to permit that departure."

"Permit?" quoth Blood. "I ordered it."

"Swounds! Whither has Wolverstone gone?"

"To Tortuga. He's gone with a message to the officers commanding the other four ships of the fleet that is awaiting me there, telling them what's happened and why they are no longer to expect me."

"You hear that, my lord? Deliberately he has let Wolverstone loose upon the seas again—Wolverstone, the worst of all that gang naturally as ye may, or it's the black stream of Coyotes, ye'll be contemplating." Arm in arm they passed through the house and down the garden, where Arabella lingered, awaiting Peter Blood's return. She was convinced now that she had done him a monstrous injustice. Therefore she lingered there in the garden, awaiting his return that she might make amends. And when at last he came, it was in company—unusually close and intimate company—with her uncle, an exaction she realized that explanations must be postponed.

He passed, with his companion, from that fragrant garden into the courtyard of the fort. Here the Commandant, who had been instructed to hold himself in readiness with the necessary men against the need to effect the arrest of Captain Blood, was amazed by the curious spectacle of the Deputy-Governor of Jamaica strolling forth arm in arm and apparently on the friendliest terms with the intended prisoner. For as they went, Blood was chatting and laughing briskly.

They passed out of the gates unchallenged, and so came to the mole where the cock-boat from the Arabella was waiting. They took their places side by side in the stern sheets, and were pulled away together, always very close and friendly, as the great red ship where Jeremy Pitt so anxiously awaited news.

Colonel Bishop stood in the waist, his great face blanched to the color of clay, his mouth loose, almost afraid to look at the sturdy ruffians who lounged about the shot-rack on the main hatch.

"Now, don't be alarming yourself, Colonel, darling," Blood said. "We'll talk the matter over while we are dining, for I trust ye'll not refuse to honor my table by your company."

He led away the will-less, cowed bully to the great cabin.

"May I ask what your intentions?" Bishop quavered. "Ye've said his lordship made a mistake when he handed me the commission which the Secretary of State did me the honor to design for me. I'm disposed to agree with you; so I'll take to the sea again. I'll be getting back to Tortuga and my buccaners."

"My God!" groaned the Deputy-Governor. "Ye . . . ye never mean that ye'll carry me to Tortuga!"

"No, no. All I want is that ye insure my safe departure from Port Royal. Ye've given certain orders to your Harbor-Master, and others to the Commandant of your plaguey fort. Ye'll be so good as to send for them both aboard here, and inform them in my presence that the Arabella is leaving this afternoon on the King's service and is to pass out unmolested. And so as to make quite sure of their obedience, they shall go a little voyage with us, themselves. Here's what you require. Now write—unless you prefer the yard-arm."

Bishop glared at him; then shrugging heavily, he took up the pen and sat down at the table. In an unsteady hand he wrote that summons to his officers. Blood dispatched it ashore; and then bade his unwilling guest to table.

"I trust, Colonel, your appetite is as stout as usual."

The Captain fell to with a good appetite. But before he was midway through the meal came Hayton to inform him that Lord Julian Wade had just come aboard, and was asking to see him instantly.

"I was expecting him," said Blood. "Fetch him in."

Blood signaled to the servant, who was standing behind Bishop.

"Set a chair for his lordship. Hayton, send his lordship's boat ashore. Tell them he'll not be returning yet awhile."

"What's that?" cried his lordship. "Blister me! D'ye mean to detain me?"

"Just to make myself and my lads here safe from Colonel Bishop's gallows. There's a note from his hand gone ashore to summon the Harbor-Master and the Commandant of the fort. Once they are aboard, I shall have all the hostages I need for our safety."

"You fool," his lordship said. "Do you dream that I came aboard your pirate ship without taking my measures? I informed the Commandant of exactly how you had compelled Colonel Bishop to accompany you. Judge now whether he or the Harbor-Master will obey the summons, or whether you will be allowed to depart as you imagine."

"I'm sorry for that," said Blood. "But not on my own account. It's the Deputy-Governor there I'm sorry for. D'ye know what ye've done? Sure, now, ye've very likely hanged him."

"My God!" cried Bishop in a sudden increase of panic.

Back about 1870, James N. Wellman developed a secret tobacco process which won instant and widespread favor. It yielded a fuller-bodied richness, mildness and fragrance which just seemed to "go" with a pipe. No one else ever knew his secret until we acquired Wellman's Method and by its means made Granger Rough Cut.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY FROM POWER OF PUBLISHED WORD

In discussing publicity the other day, a prominent southern business man declared "You cannot get away from the power of the published advertisement. It influences you unconsciously if it does not actually impel you to act directly. You will say to yourself upon reading an advertisement, 'that sounds reasonable, but I do not need the article.' Then several days later you may need such an article and you will go as naturally to the store whose ad you had read as you would go to a doctor for a prescription. The store one goes to as a matter of course, is the store one has read about most in newspaper advertising. To reach it one probably would have to pass a dozen stores of the same kind which probably would have the same things one wished to buy, but he knows the store he is headed for has what he wishes because he has read its advertisements and knows what it has and often knows just what price will be charged." This man knows what he is talking about, particularly about the unconscious action taken by people generally. Opinion and preferences are formed without, the individual being conscious of what is taking place, and in this part of human nature lies one of the strongest reasons for constant advertising. The individual gets accustomed to thinking of the store whose advertising it sees regularly, and without knowing it is transformed into a customer of that store, becoming familiar with its offerings, its prices, its manner of doing business, and its character, as indicated by its advertising. This is a reason why personality in advertising is a strong factor. The honest merchant who can put into his advertising the trait of honesty to a degree that it will be realized by the reader succeeds in winning his confidence and makes a customer which other will find hard to take away from him. The same applies to value giving, the class of merchandise offered, the up-to-the-minute styles, and many other features of merchandising.—Florence Times.

YOUR INCOME TAX

It should be noted that the revenue act of 1924 provides specifically that the status of a taxpayer relative to the amount of his personal exemptions shall be determined by apportionment in accordance with the number of months the taxpayer was single, married, or the head of a family.

Under the preceding act the amount of the exemption to which a taxpayer was entitled was determined by his status as a single person, married person or the head of a family on the last day of the taxable year.

A taxpayer, who was married on June 30, 1924, is entitled to an exemption of $1,750. For the first six months of the taxable year he is classed as a single person, entitling him to an exemption of $500—one-half of the $1,000 exemption allowed a single person who is single for the complete taxable year—and for the last six months he is classed as a married person, entitling him to an exemption of $1,250, one-half of the exemption allowed a married person living with wife or husband for the full taxable year. If on June 30 he became a widower, he is classed as a married person for the first half of the year and as a single person for the latter half. In such computations a fractional part of a month is disregarded, unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it is considered a full month. These figures are based on the assumption that the return is made on the calendar year basis, as most are.

If on June 30, 1924, a taxpayer ceased being the head of a family—the support in one household of a relative or relative being discontinued—he is granted the same exemption as in the case of a taxpayer married on June 30, a total of $1,750. With regard to the $400 credit for a dependent, however, it is provided that the taxpayer's status on the last day of the taxable year (December 31, if the return is made on the calendar year basis) shall determine his right to such credit. If on that day he was the chief support of a dependent who is under 18 years of age, or is incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, he is entitled to the $400 credit. If during the year his support of such dependent ceased, the credit is not allowed.

WEST ALABAMA SOON TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF NOTED ROOSTER BRIDGE

Demopolis and other sections of West Alabama soon will unite in a celebration of the opening of the noted Rooster Bridge, a structure which was built, in part, by the proceeds from a sale of common and extraordinary varieties of barn yard fowls.

How soon will it be before North Alabama celebrates the opening of a bridge across the Tennessee river here?

Civic leaders of the Demopolis section worked out a plan for raising a fund for the bridge by sales of roosters given by prominent men of the world, who interested by the unusualness of the scheme, readily agreed to help. "Auctions" were conducted and nearly $100,000 was declared to have been raised for the river structure.

The new bridge, of concrete and steel, links the counties of Marengo and Sumpter. It is declared to be a very important link in the highway chain of the section and is expected to play a big part in the development of the neighboring Western Alabama counties.

The plan adopted at Demopolis, as successful as it proved there, is not necessary here. The financial budgets the committees have worked out will provide the necessary fund to insure the subscription of the remainder of the fund by the state. All that is necessary in the case of the Tennessee river bridge is for each governmental agency and each individual to co-operate with the committees to the extent asked, and no trouble will be found in raising our share.

SOUTHERN FARMERS USING COTTON PRODUCTS AS FEED FOR STOCK

With feed crops comparatively small over the greater part of the South, and the price of corn exceptionally high, the problem of providing food for stock on Southern farms is becoming an increasingly bothersome problem. There seems, however, to be one gleam of real hope in a situation that otherwise appears rather gloomy.

Very good agricultural authorities declare that the Southern farmers have been neglecting to use cotton products as stock food, when as a matter of fact the food elements of these products is of a higher ratio than is obtained in other preparations which are imported from northern producing centers. If, the present high cost of imported feedstuffs results in the greater use by farmers of the South of their own products, then a condition, which apparently worked considerable hardship on our farmers, will, after all, have proved a real blessing, disguised perhaps, but a blessing nevertheless.

The Commercial Appeal, in a timely editorial discussing the movement to make use of cotton seed meal in feeding farm stock, likens the condition of Southern farmers, who have complained of high feed costs, to a group of mariners of many years ago, who while off the coast of South America, cried to a passing ship to replenish their fresh water supply for they were athirst.

"Dip it up," came the reply, "You are in the mouth of the Amazon."

The Commercial Appeal adds "in the present extremity, faced with a corn and feed famine, farmers need only dip up their requirements of winter feed. It is at their own doors and was raised on their own land. Mixed in the proper proportions, this home-grown feed can be used at a saving of 50 per cent."

G. S. Fraps, chief of the division of chemistry of the Texas experiment station, says: "As a general thing, Southern farmers could improve and cheapen the ratio fed horses and mules by feeding some cottonseed meal in place of corn. Cottonseed meal has been fed horses and mules at a number of experiment stations, with excellent results."

Dr. E. R. Lloyd, director of farm bureau, Memphis chamber of commerce, voices the opinion: "Our people have never appreciated the value of cottonseed meal as a feed, and in the past have allowed about one half of the output to be used either as a direct fertilizer or exported to Europe as a feed. During 1913 there were about 400,000 tons of cottonseed meal exported to Europe."

"The European feeders have found cottonseed meal to be one of the cheapest and most concentrated feedstuffs on the market and have been able to pay freight on it from this country to Europe and derive a profit from feeding it."

"Cottonseed meal has furnished the principal grain ration for cattle and sheep in the South for many years, but only in recent years has it been considered a good safe feed for horses, mules, hogs and poultry. Under intelligent management cottonseed meal can and has been safely and economically fed to horses, mules, hogs and poultry."

The Commercial Appeal says the Southern farmer gives too little thought to the value of the cotton crop.

"The Cotton farmer," the paper declares, "thinks of his cotton in terms of bales. He is glad to get what he can for seed, but with him seed is a side issue. It should not be so. The fact is, along with his cotton, in every ton of cottonseed, he also produces 900 pounds of the best concentrated protein feed in the world, 300 pounds of cotton oil, one of the best food fats, and 500 pounds of hulls, a superior roughage, fully equal to common hay. Common hay now is $18 a ton, hulls are $12 and cottonseed meal, at present prices of $38 to $40 a ton, is cheaper than wheat shorts. The economy of using more of the products of the cotton crop at home is apparent."

Southern farmers, individually and through their organizations, now are making a serious study of the matters of reductions in the costs of farm fertilization, of better marketing facilities, and of diversification of products. It seems, especially in years which bring advances in the prices of feedstuffs, that it is equally as important that the same serious study be applied to the question of providing cheaper stock food.

Certainly it is worth our effort, if by using cotton crop products for stock food, we can reduce the expense of our farms and, by making our cotton crop more valuable, at the same time increase our income.

ADVICE TO GIRLS

By ANNIE LAURIE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I have been a silent reader for quite a while, but since I saw Dojoco's letter in the paper I thought I too would write a few lines.

Good for you Dojoco, I wish the girls would open up their eyes a little and see what fools the boys make of them.

I think a girl can be just as attractive and sweet without letting men kiss her.

I would like to see more girls and men write in and give their opinion.

MISS DOJOCO NO. 2.

MISS DOJOCO NO. 2: You have no idea what a pleasure it is to read such letters as yours, dear reader. And how glad I am that you decided to break your silence, for no doubt, your words will give cheer and encouragement to countless young men and women.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am just entering my twenties and have been going out with young men quite a lot. I have been going with two young men now for about six months. I also have other friends. Both of these young men want me to go steadily with them, and they both have told me how much they think of me. I like both of these men and value them as good friends, but I am not ready to settle down.

I like to go out for a nice time. I do not care for wild parties, or the kind of people who go in for such amusement. I like to dance and am considered a good dancer.

I am going away and am to be the guest of a young man. Is it proper for me to let him get me a room with friends of his if they are the proper kind of people?

I do not want to stay at a hotel, and the "Y" does not have single rooms and I do not care to room with a stranger. He has given me the very best kind of references about these people, and I am considering staying with them.

BOBS.

BOBS: The important question for you to consider is whether or not you should go to visit this young man. Most decidedly not unless the invitation comes from his mother or sister and they provide a place for you to stay. You may know this man very well, dear, and trust him implicitly, but you will be going under any other circumstances, for you know how quick people are to judge.

As for the other men, tell them just how you feel toward them and if they value your friendship sufficiently, dear, they will be glad to accept your conditions.

Tell him that your letter head was printed by the job department of the Daily. He will know that attractiveness and appeal is included in the job. Call Albany 46 and have a representative call.

A CAUSE OF WOMEN'S ILLS

WOMEN OFTEN THINK THEY HAVE HEART TROUBLE, INDIGESTION, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, ETC., WHEN IT'S SIMPLY IRON STARVATION OF THE BLOOD.

Many women believe they are weak and nervous as a result of age, worry and overwork; they think that their disturbed digestion, headaches, heart palpitation, shortness of breath, pains across the back, etc., are due to some serious disease instead of the real cause—iron starvation of the blood. This is proven by the fact that when many of these same women take organic iron for awhile all their alarming symptoms quickly disappear and they become strong, robust and healthy. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living cells and tissue. Without it nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get the strength out of it.

If you are not strong and well do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration, but take some organic iron—Nuxated Iron—at once. But be sure it's organic iron and not metallic iron which people usually take and which is made merely by the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Organic NUXATED IRON is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples and it often increases the bodily and mental vigor of weak, worn-out women in two weeks' time.

Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. J. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. At all druggists.

MOTHERS CLUB

Mrs. T. M. Jones, Jr., was hostess to the members of the Mothers Club on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The subject for the afternoon was "Child Culture—Justice" and the keynote of the afternoon's discussion could be given in the following quotation, "Nothing is Right for the One That Is Not Just to the Other."

Mrs. M. S. Bingham prepared and read a paper entitled, "A Sense of Justice as Foundation to All Virtues," that was very much enjoyed. "Application of the Law of Justice, the Requirement and use of money" was discussed by Mrs. W. M. Robertson. A vocal solo, "Baby O'Mine," a lullaby in negro dialect was beautifully given by Mrs. R. M. McGlathery. Mrs. I. V. Timberlake contributed a good paper taking as her subject, "Play the Game According to Rules—the Epitome of Life's Training."

It was found, during the business session that all of the work of the club was progressing in a very gratifying manner and later a plate of delicious refreshments were served.

SATURDAY CLUB

The Saturday Club will meet this week with Mrs. Tennis Tidwell at her home on Jackson street.

Mrs. R. E. Wardlow is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brittnell in Russellville for a few days.

Tom Harris, of New Orleans, was the guest of relatives here on Wednesday en route to Courtland to spend a few days there on business.

Unique Method To Keep Jail Clean

(Associated Press)

MOBILE, Ala., Feb. 5.—A unique method to induce prisoners in the county jail to keep their cells clean has been inaugurated here by Sheriff Leon Schwartz and has met with almost universal favor among the prisoners.

Realizing that food has always been an incentive for great effort Sheriff Schwartz figured the prisoners would much prefer chicken dinners to the regular menu of bacon and beans, so he launched a campaign of cleanliness, the reward to be a Sunday chicken dinner.

The cells are given an inspection by Major F. W. Hecox, in charge of Mobile's Officers Reserve Corps and David Holt, commander of the American Legion's local post. The winners of the coveted reward are announced after the rigid inspection given by the military officers.

Sheriff Schwartz says that he is very much pleased with the scheme and that it promises to bring about a neat appearance and sanitary condition at the county jail.

The man who yawns at a radio program is hopeless in the matter of entertainment.

DICKY DISCOVERS A FUNNY LITTLE ACROBAT.

DICKY stood on his hands, his back to the wall and tried his best to raise his feet above his head but every time he'd tumble down again.

When he had tried it for the fourth time and had failed to stand on his head, he sat in the grass dreaming, when a tiny twinkling light startled him, and turning around, Dicky discovered he had an audience. There on the brick wall above his head hung a queer little animal. His hind feet hung to the top of the wall and his head was hanging down toward Dicky. His wings folded around him.

"I don't blame you for laughing," Dicky said. "It's such a simple thing to stand on one's head if you just know how."

"Well, I can't say as to that," chuckled the animal. "I don't know how it is with you boys but with me it's quite an easy matter. For we hang head down most of the time."

"So I notice," agreed Dicky. "And I've often wondered why you do. Don't you get dizzy? Is there any particular reason why you hang head down?"

"Sure, there's a good reason," laughed Mrs. Bat. "When my head is down, I'm ready for flight. All I have to do is let go and drop into the air, like this," and Mrs. Bat loosened the hold she had on the wall and dropped down beside Dicky. "I can stand on my head, climb up that wall with my head down, too. Would you believe that?"

"I guess I'd have to if you'd prove it to me," laughed Dicky. "That is if you're not too busy. I'm never busy in the day time," chuckled Mrs. Bat. "Now, if the day was a sunny one, I wouldn't venture out for the world, but it's cloudy today and I do love cloudy days. Watch me and then maybe you can do it, too."

Mrs. Bat stood as close to the wall as she could get, then turning her back to it the same way Dicky had, she raised her body up on her front feet and placed her hind feet upon the wall above her head.

"I Don't Blame You."

"See, it's easy after you once get on to it," she laughed. "Now watch this," feeling up the wall with her hind feet for a rough place she caught hold of it tightly and drew her body up the side of the wall to the top again.

"Great goodness!" Dicky exclaimed, his eyes as large as saucers. "I'd be the wonder of the age if I could do that. But I suppose all your relatives are acrobats, aren't they? My bat that was great. Do it again will you or is it hard work?"

"Work! My goodness, no. It's as easy as walking down head first," and Mrs. Bat walked down the wall head first and up feet first again to amuse Dicky.

He was sorry when his Mama called him in to supper but Mrs. Bat told him to practice and maybe he could do it himself some day and now every afternoon that it's cloudy you'll find Dicky out by the garden wall trying to stand on his head, and if you'll look real carefully you'll most likely see Mrs. Bat on the top of the wall hanging by her feet.

High Again Hangs Up Victory Over 'Ys'
Game Goes Into Extra Period. P.-R.'s Win

Wade was the deciding factor in the game between the Y. M. C. A. and the Albany high school last night in the local cage tournament when he sent the oval hurtling through the mesh for a free shot in the extra five minute period and annexed another victory to the credit of the high lads. The final score went 17-16.

The Power-Roofers continued their spurt and with Odom and Sims doing a bit of fancy pitching they defeated the Decatur team by a 20-10 score.

The first game was a battle from beginning to end with Hurst and Johnson scintillating for the high boys from the forward and center positions. Roper and Morris were the offensive guns for the Y. M. C. A. boys and at the end of the half the High school lead by a 11-8 margin. The Y. M. C. A. came back stronger in the second half and at the end of the game the score stood at 16 all. The extra five minutes was played in fine style and although both teams had a number of chances to count, Wade was the only man able to loop one through the hoop. This margin decided victory to the school and ended one of the best games of the season.

The regular lineups were: High: Johnson and Wade forwards; Hurst, center; Perie and Spencer guards; Leonard substitute for Wade. Y. M. C. A.: Roper and Morris forwards; Ellison center; Chunn and L. T. Roper guards; Neal substitute for Chunn.

In the second game the Power-Roofers got away to a start and taking advantage of the absence of several Decatur stars on the offense they lead all the way, finally gaining a verdict of 20-10. Sewell scored five baskets for the Decatur total while Morrow added to the Sims-Odom combination with 2 baskets.

The lineups were: Decatur—Sewell, Hurst, forwards; Himes, center; Byers and Giers guards. Power-Roofers: Sims and Smith forwards; Odom center; Morrow and Burns guards.

Most Women Suffer For Sake of Modesty

They Endure Intense Pain Month After Month Rather Than Make Grievous Condition Known. G. F. P. Can Be Used in Privacy of Home Without the Knowledge Of Anyone.

The subject of the peculiar ways in which girls and women suffer is the one which they prefer not to discuss with others, yet they know that as long as they don't get relief, they are doomed to remain in misery. Not knowing this and feeling that they will be serving such suffering girls and women in the privacy of their homes, the discoverers of St. Joseph's G. F. P., have scattered the sale of this wonderful medicine as broadcast as possible so every woman can go or send to her favorite drug store and simply get G. F. P., without asking questions or giving any information about her condition.

It is deemed a sacred duty to let sister, daughter, wife and mother know that in nine cases out of ten the derangement in their organic functioning which causes pains, irregularity, nervousness, irritability, dyspnoea, and swelling of limbs and joints during pregnancy, as well as continued suffering during the change in their lives, is due almost entirely to the hold which the dreaded malady—catarrh, has on their organs.

Many a miserable and suffering woman, influenced by that fear of others knowing, and too modest to find reliable help, has endured such distressing ailments just because she had no way of getting relief such as she can do now by simply getting G. F. P. from the nearest drug store.

Women Now Depend on St. Joseph's G. F. P.

St. Joseph's G. F. P. is a medicine of American origin, made in the United States, and is the only medicine of its kind in the world. It is a powerful and effective remedy for all cases of catarrh, whether it be of the bladder, uterus, or vagina. It is a safe and reliable medicine, and is the only one of its kind in the world.

Falkville High fresh from an overwhelming victory over Morgan County high will face the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 8 p. m. at the Albany high school gymnasium. Falkville offers one of the most formidable combinations that has invaded the local court realms this year with Tomlinson and Summerford at the forwards. Their defensive game is top notch as shown by the low score that the Hartselle team made against them and the Y. M. C. A. realizes that they are not going against a push over by any means.

Captain Ellison of the L. & N. Y. team will probably be at center with Roper and Morris working at the forwards and with Chunn, Shelton, L. T. Roper, Neal and Kirby to battle it out for the guards.

The game is to be called promptly at 8 o'clock and local fandom is promised one of the best games of the season.

On Saturday the Y. M. C. A. lads will play a double header against the Huntsville Merrimack team and the Dallas Reserves. The games will be played at Huntsville. The Y team has not yet faced the Merrimack Scouts but have an even head thus far with the Dallas boys. The team is in good shape and it is the consensus of opinion that they may win both tilts.

Paavo Nurmi has made an agreement with Allen Helfrich of Pennsylvania State to run the half mile on February 14. ### BEAR CATS BEST TIGERS IN BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Bear Cats swiped another 3 points in bowling last night at the Y. M. C. A., thus holding second place in the league for the present week. Tigers gained one point last night.

Smith of the Bear Cats hit the maples on a lively clip last night, making games of 131, 135 and 159, total 425. By this streak of concentration on the head pin he increased his tournament average by three pins. Hagerman was the leading man for the Tigers.

Tonight the Railroaders will bowl the Machine Shop. The former team rates a handicap of 56 pins.

The sensation for the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories tested approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonful. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be foolish for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

"REMEDY FOR HIGH PRICED CORN AND HAY"

You know that Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls make the best and cheapest feed for cows, to produce Butter Fat, Milk and Flesh.

It is almost as good for Horses and Mules, though it has not been the general custom to feed them Meal and Hulls and many of our Farmers do not know that they can winter their work stock on this feed with a big saving in cost to their pocket-books, and have their corn and hay to feed when plowing time comes.

The following formulas were worked out by eminent feed specialist, and have been thoroughly tried out by practical farmers, and you may safely feed it to your stock.

FOR HORSES AND MULES DOING LIGHT WORK, PER DAY.
6 lbs. Corn or Oats, 2 lbs. of Cotton Seed Meal and 8 lbs. Cotton Seed Hulls or 10 lbs. of Hay.

FOR IDLE STOCK THROUGH WINTER, PER DAY.
3 lbs. Corn or Oats, 2 lbs. Cotton Seed Meal, 8 lbs. Cotton Seed Hulls or 10 lbs. of Hay.

In both above formulas it is better to take ear corn and crush the shuck, corn and cob into meal if you are prepared to do it.

You can save money on your feed bills by using this ration. While corn and oats are very scarce and high, nature is trying to help us by a bountiful cotton crop, with very low priced cotton seed meal and hulls as compared with other feeds.

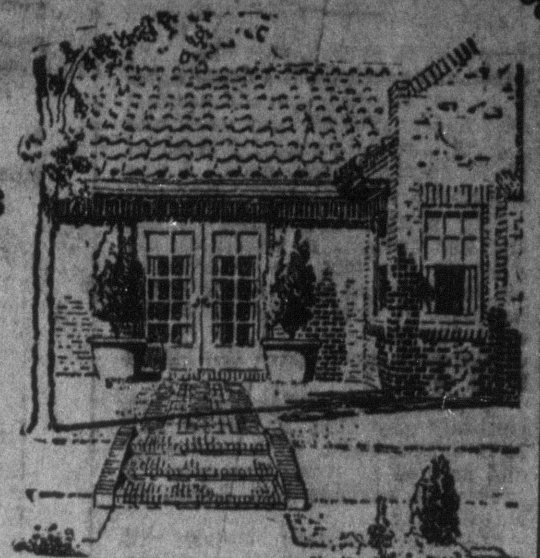

Why not use some horse sense to avail yourself of what a kind Providence has given the South to make up for the short grain crop.

Cotton Seed Meal, fed properly will produce hog fat cheaper than corn and is also fine for poultry, it makes hens lay.

You can get Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls from any nearby Merchant or you may order it from the

Facts about Child-birth

It has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering, pain and dread experienced during pregnancy, as well as at child-birth is entirely unnecessary.

An eminent physician, Dr. J. H. Holmes, expert in this science, first produced the remedy "Mother's Friend," which, aside from the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, during the constant readjustment, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth.

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally. Three generations of expectant mothers have used it. "Pain disappeared in two days after using 'Mother's Friend,'" writes a user. "I owe my life to 'Mother's Friend,'" declared another. Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Start today and experience the wonderful comfort it will give you.

Neglected Cough Dangerous—How to Stop It Quickly

When the delicate tissues of your throat are raw and sore from coughing, and your strength is exhausted with the constant hacking, you may fall an easy prey to more serious trouble. So stop the cough the first time you feel it. It is a simple matter. By a very simple treatment you can stop the cough practically at once, and relieve the heart and lungs often in 24 hours. The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. With the ease and speed in this way, the whole cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription contains no opiates or harmful drugs. It simply helps Nature. It is for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, bronchitis and spasmodic croup. Very economical, as all good druggists. Ask for Lady Says Her Back "Hurt Night and Day"—Least Noise Upset Her. Better After Taking Cardui.

Winfield, Texas.—"My back hurt night and day," says Mrs. C. L. Eason, of R. F. D. 1, this place. "I ached and ached until I could hardly go. I felt weak and did not feel like doing anything. My work was a great burden to me. I just hated to do up the dishes, even. I was no-account and extremely nervous. My mother had taken Cardui and she thought it would do me good, so she told me to take it. My husband got me a bottle and I began on it. I began to improve at once. It was such a help that I continued it until after the baby's birth. I took eight bottles and I can certainly say that it helped me. It is a fine tonic. It built me up and seemed to strengthen me. I grew less nervous and began to sleep better. I can certainly recommend Cardui to expectant mothers, for to me it was a wonderful help. In every way I felt better after taking it and I think it is a splendid medicine."

A Hint for Beginners

The cross-word puzzle diagram is merely a means of concealing words which are synonymous to those listed and which will interlock perfectly and so read equally well crosswise or downwards. Always look for the number of the synonym on the diagram. If horizontal, you must find a word to fit between that number and the first shaded stop to the right; if vertical, you must fit your word between the number and the first shaded stop below.

AMUSEMENTS

"RAIN"

The most talked of play of the decade "Rain," which ran for two years on Broadway will be the attraction at the Masonic theater, February 7.

It will be recalled that "Rain" is a dramatization of a short story called "Miss Thompson," written by W. Somerset Maugham, made into play form by John Colton and Clemence Randolph. When it was produced at the Maxine Elliott Theater, it scored an instantaneous hit and up to the time of its closing through Equity troubles there was not a vacant seat during the entire run.

It is a play of human emotions and psychological purport, the scenes of which are laid on the Island of Tutuila at the Port of Pago Pago, which is under the Dominion of the United States government.

It was given its rather unusual title, through the fact that in that section of the world there is a certain season of the year when it rains incessantly, this having a most remarkable influence on the lives and thoughts of the inhabitants.

The company which will present this play here includes among its members: Hilda Vaughn, Augusta Durgan, Belle Sylvia, Edward F. Nanary, C. Norman Hammond, Hans Roberts, E. Kneth Fox, Billy Hall, Arnes Atherton, Emma Raff, Howard H. Gibson and others.

Albany-Decatur tomorrow will have an opportunity of seeing the massive production which swept into overnight fame in New York and made the critics so far forget themselves as to use up nearly the entire stock of laudatory adjectives in the English language in their reviews. As a general rule, success on Broadway does not always spell success here, but local theatergoers who visited the Astor Theater, in New York, the first of the metropolitan runs, expressed the opinion that the hit will be even greater here where Hugo's great work is so widely known. Seems like this is a reflection on Gotham's literary leanings.

From all advance accounts Universal has all the ingredients of a great success—a story that is internationally famous, that is replete with action, albeit somewhat gruesome, the greatest of character stars in Lon Chaney, an excellent supporting cast, studio facilities, and unlimited funds. It may be divulging a trade secret, but it has leaked out that Universal, to guard against the least chance of adverse criticism, called in the director of New York's greatest cinema houses and one of the leading newspaper editors and had them do the final touches. The result is said to mark the dawn of a new day in cinema art and one that has made Carl Laemmle's slogan of "Better and finer productions" an absolute fact. Lon Chaney, admittedly the finest interpreter of unusual character roles on either stage or screen, plays the stellar part of "Quasimodo," with Ernest Torrence as "Clopin, the underworld king" and Patsy Ruth Miller as "Esmeralda." Seventy-two other noted performers have featured parts, while two hundred players interpret smaller roles with the mob scenes numbering slightly in excess of 3500 persons.

Some idea of the immensity of the production can be obtained when it is at the foot of the entire Cathedral.

It is who yawns at a radio program hopeless in the matter of entertainment.

Attractive Printing

---Has a purpose as well as an appeal

There is nothing more appealing to the eye and nothing that makes your customer or patron stop and read what you have to say quicker than a neatly printed and well constructed job, but the real worth of the letter head, the circular, the statement, or the order blank is in showing the customer what kind of a firm or person he is dealing with.

The Albany-Decatur Daily Job Printing Department has been in operation for thirteen years. The same patrons that bought with us the first day the plant opened are still with us. What is the answer?
